INTRODUCTION

BERRI-BIJJARGI is a registered charitable trust born on 4th April 2017. The inspiration behind this project is the Renowned Mathematician & Astronomer Bhaskaracharya (also known as Bhaskara II) of the 12th Century who was believed to be born in the Bijjargi Village of Vijayapura (Bijapur) District. The main reason for the formation of the trust is to promote mathematics, astronomy - the main areas of Bhaskaracharya's contribution, and to promote rural development. The Trust would like to keep the legacy of this great intellectual alive for the present and future generations. The work of the Trust will begin at Bijjargi which is a part of the Vijayapura (Bijapur) District where a few child prodigies with mathematical skills have been discovered. Also, it is the native village of the founder trustee, who himself was discovered as a child prodigy there.

The vision is to set up a rural campus at Bijjargi. This campus will be an educational & resource hub in the field of mathematics and astronomy for children of all ages. For others engaged in agricultural and other livelihood activities it would be a community centre for information, resource and help centre.

Installation of Benches on the Main Road
(Bijjargi – Vijayapura Road)

In the month of June, 2017, the BERRI-BIJJARGI Trust installed five benches alongside the main road leading to Bijjargi, under two shade-giving trees.

As Vijayapura (Bijapur) is a hot and arid region, these benches will provide a welcome resting place for morning and evening walkers.

They will also provide a comfortable resting place for passers-by travelling on this highway, during the day.

Mathematics Workshop for High School Children

Date

July 17, 2017, Afternoon: 2.30 to 4.30 pm

Participants and Programme

Forty students from class nine from BAK High School, Bijjargi village, participated in the Mathematics workshop. They were introduced to topics in arithmetic and geometry. Using simple teaching aids, they learned about addition, subtraction, multiplication, division related to arithmetic. In geometry, the focus was areas and volume calculations. There was a special emphasis made on the significance of the value of Pi (π). The session was filled with hands-on demonstrations and vibrant interactions. It was a very joyful experience for the children

Several adults were also present at the workshop and were fascinated by the simplicity and effectiveness of the approach.

The workshop was conducted by Koushalya Panchanan, a mathematics teacher from a Government Kannada Boys Higher Primary School, No.37, Vijayapura. She has participated in many seminars on mathematics both at the state and national level. Her contribution towards mathematics has been recognised by many institutions.

Few thoughts by the Facilitator -

“Mathematics is not a ‘hard nut’ to crack. It should be like a peeled banana fruit. It is a game, a path to discover truth. Keeping this in mind, I devised basic fundamental concepts in mathematics for children to understand I developed models. To enable learning mathematics with joy and curiosity, I used teaching aids to create an activity based learning environment.

To inspire creativity and curiosity in children, they have to touch, feel and examine objects in early stages of learning. Only then there will be some progress in the child’s learning.

In my working career, I have felt no child should see mathematics as ‘difficult’. Only when a child thinks of Mathematics as very easy and interesting, as a subject, do I feel satisfied. With these reasons, I started developing innovative teaching aids.

The higher authorities of the education department, my school head master, and my colleagues encouraged me to develop these modules. Apart from this, my husband and my children have become supporting pillars in this work.

In the past year, Smt. Sunanda Patil, a very special personality and various teachers from S. S. High School, Vijayapura have been giving valuable suggestions and encouragement to continue my work.”

Opening of Library

Date: 17th July 2017

Venue: Berri-Bijjargi Trust Office Premises

On 17th July 2017, Berri-Bijjargi library was inaugurated and officially opened for the public.

At present, the library is located in a small room adjacent to the trust office with a big, common, multipurpose hall in the front which can be used as a reading or study room.

The first collection for this library is a combination of personal collections of the trustees and contributions from the general public along with the new purchases made from book stores.

The collections include books on mathematics, astronomy and historical reference books about Karnataka and the surrounding states, with particular focus on Vijayapura (Bijapur) region. There are quite a few children's books along with some books on agriculture and farming. The collection is a combination of Kannada and English books.

The trust subscribes to daily newspapers, both in Kannada and English for the public to read. In the days to come, it will subscribe to a variety of magazines on a wide range of subjects. We hope over a period of time, the collection of books will increase.

Children and adults are enthusiastically using the facilities of this library. It has become a new learning centre and a knowledge hub in the village.

New Seating Benches in the Village Bus Stops

In December 2017, the BERRI-BIJJARGI Trust installed three new benches in the village near the bus stops. The benches are located in a place that is accessible to all.

As Vijayapura (Bijapur) and Bijjargi Village is a hot and arid region, these benches will provide a welcome resting place for people waiting for buses or a meeting place.

Astronomy: Total Lunar Eclipse Viewing Programme

Date: 31.01.2018, Time: 5.00 to 9.00 PM

On this special day a large group of students and other people from the village gathered near the Berri - Bijjargi premises.

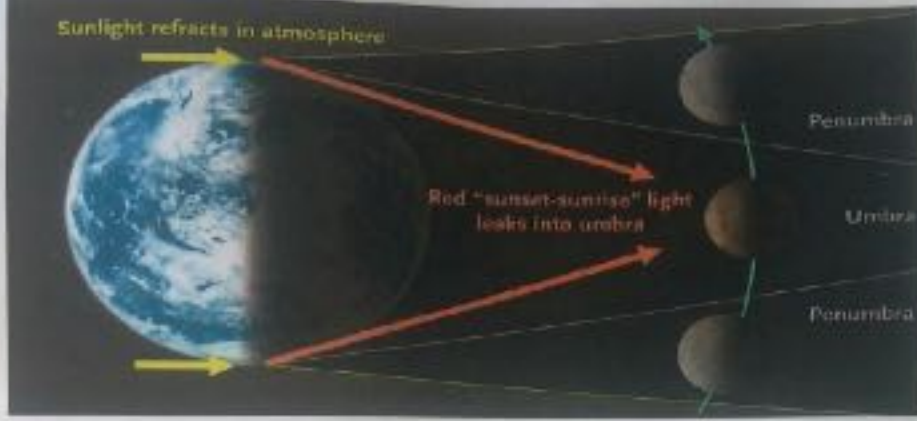

We invited teachers and professors to give a brief general introduction in astronomy, and more specifically about the significance and beauty of the lunar eclipse. Many listened in awe and wonder to the magnificence of the celestial world.

This was followed by a lively discussion about the myths and beliefs associated with eclipses. The science behind the phenomena was an important learning for all participants. This understanding added to the glory of the astronomic event.

The participants were introduced to binoculars and telescopes which are essential tools for astronomical observation. After this everybody spent quiet moments enjoying the spectacular total lunar eclipse unfold right before them.

It was an eventful evening filled with curiosity and learning. The food and snacks that was provided helped in relaxing the fear around eating during an eclipse.

First Anniversary Programme

Date: 04.04.2018, Time: 5.00 to 10.00 PM

On April 2018, BERRI - BIJJARGI formally completed one year. As part of this programme, we invited the village school children and the general public of Bijjaragi along with trustees and volunteers of Berri – Bijjargi. The evening was exciting.

The programme started at five in the evening with a brief sharing by the Trust members of the activities of the Trust over the previous year. There was also an introduction about Bhaskaracharya and his contribution to mathematics and astronomy and the significance of his work up to this day.

The Trust's plan for action for the following year was also shared. A large audience of about 400 people were present – young children, women, senior citizens and nonagenarians attended the program. In this forum the importance of nature was emphasised, especially for a rainfall deficit area like Bijjargi.

As for the cultural programme for the day, the evening was filled with enjoyable performances. All the local, indigenous artists of Bijjargi village were given the opportunity to share their art. The performers included folk singers, drummers (Dollu Gayakaru), other musicians on the tabla, harmonium and keyboard, both men and women alike. All artists were honoured at the end of the programme.

This was followed up with a hearty dinner for all the participants.
